

ATTORNEY MICHAEL HEISKELL QUESTIONING OFFICER MARK SHIMMICK (OFFICER MEDLIN'S PARTNER)

10 Q. Yes. Let me go back now to the 9-1-1 tape that
11 you heard, and I think you told us you've heard it before.
12 You heard Roy give some type of landmarks to the 9-1-1
13 dispatcher?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. In fact, some of those same landmarks that you
16 pointed out for this jury in those exhibits on the aerial
17 photograph as well as other photographs?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. You heard him recite -- well, first of all, you
20 knew he was able to call 9-1-1. He was alert enough to do
21 that, correct?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. And recite his location, correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Did you also hear him recite in a pretty quick

89

1 and rapid fashion his own phone number?

2 A. Yes, he did know that.

3 Q. And there was some other things that he did in
4 direct response to the 9-1-1 dispatcher's questions; is
5 that correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. The fact that when you heard that -- oh, and by
8 the way, Officer Shimmick -- I forgot your name there for
9 a second, I apologize.

10 A. That's okay.

11 Q. You as a DWI officer know of certain indicators
12 of what you may deem personally as intoxication, correct?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. And one of those things you look for and look
15 toward is slurred speech?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. Thick tongue, kind of incoherent speech,
18 correct?

19 A. Sure.

20 Q. You didn't hear that in Roy's 9-1-1, did you?

21 A. No.

22 Q. How long have you been doing DWI's now?

23 A. Since the year 2000. Well, I mean, I've been 24 doing them my whole career, but, I mean, as far as I've 25 been in the traffic unit since 2000.
